DEDICATION

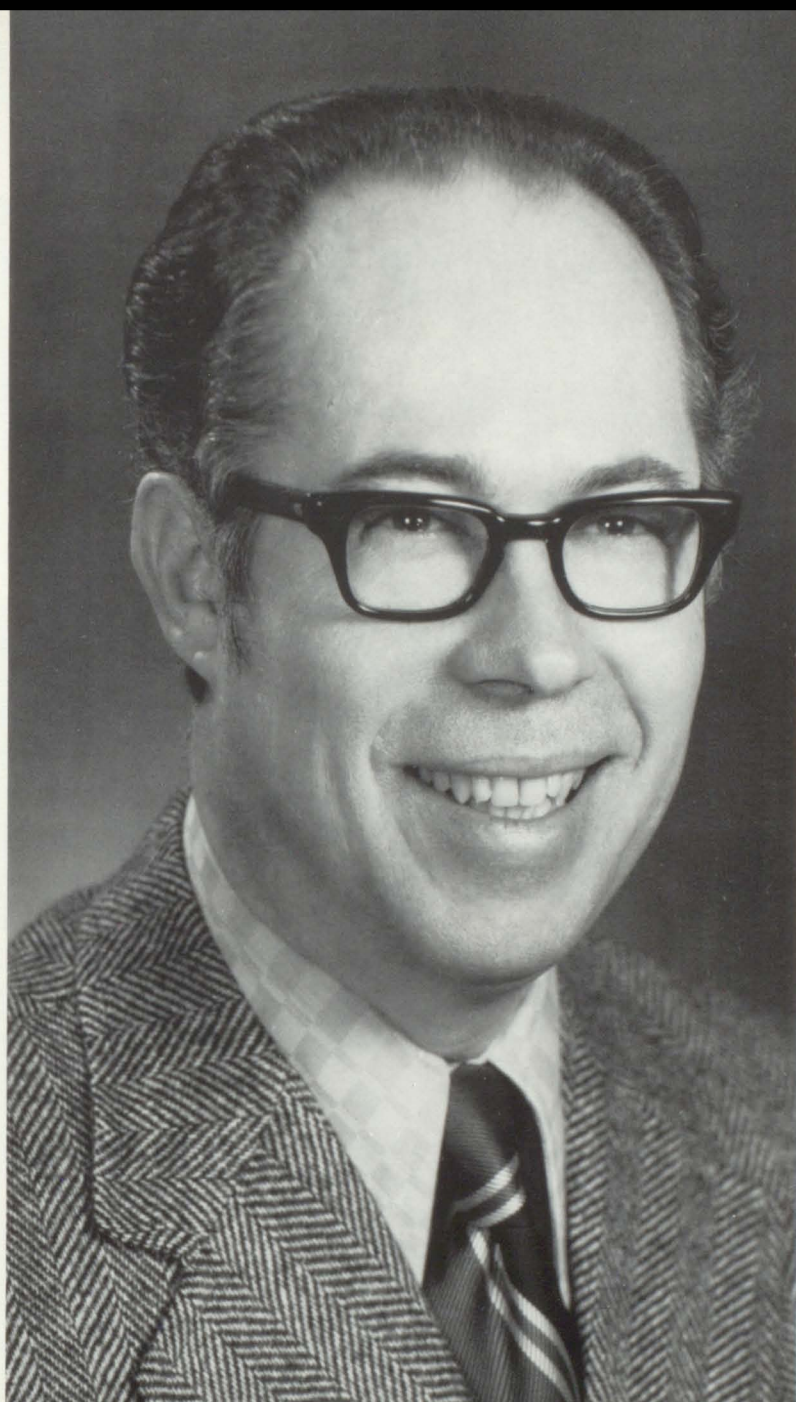

MRS. ELODIE VANDEVERT

"I don't know enough," replied the scarecrow cheerfully. "My head is stuffed with straw you know, and that is why I am going to OZ to ask him for some brains." "Oh I see," said the Tin Woodsman. "But after all, brains are not the best things in the world." "Have you any?" inquired the scarecrow. "No, my head is quite empty," answered the woodman. "But once I had brains, and a heart also: so having tried them both, I should much rather have a heart."

Within you,
there is a stillness
and Sanctuary,
to which you can retreat
and be yourself.

"Come take my hand, together we will run through the crowded forest of decision. We can take our time if we want, play hide and seek among the decaying pillars of wisdom. We can pull leaves from the heavy boughs and make crowns for our heads. But when we tire of this game, there will be no place for us to rest. So come take my hand, let us keep running!"

The Road goes ever on and on Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can.

Pursuing it with weary feet,
Until it joins some larger way,
Where many paths and errands meet.
And whither then? I cannot say.

No book
can teach us Self.
it's a hidden language
only heart can read.

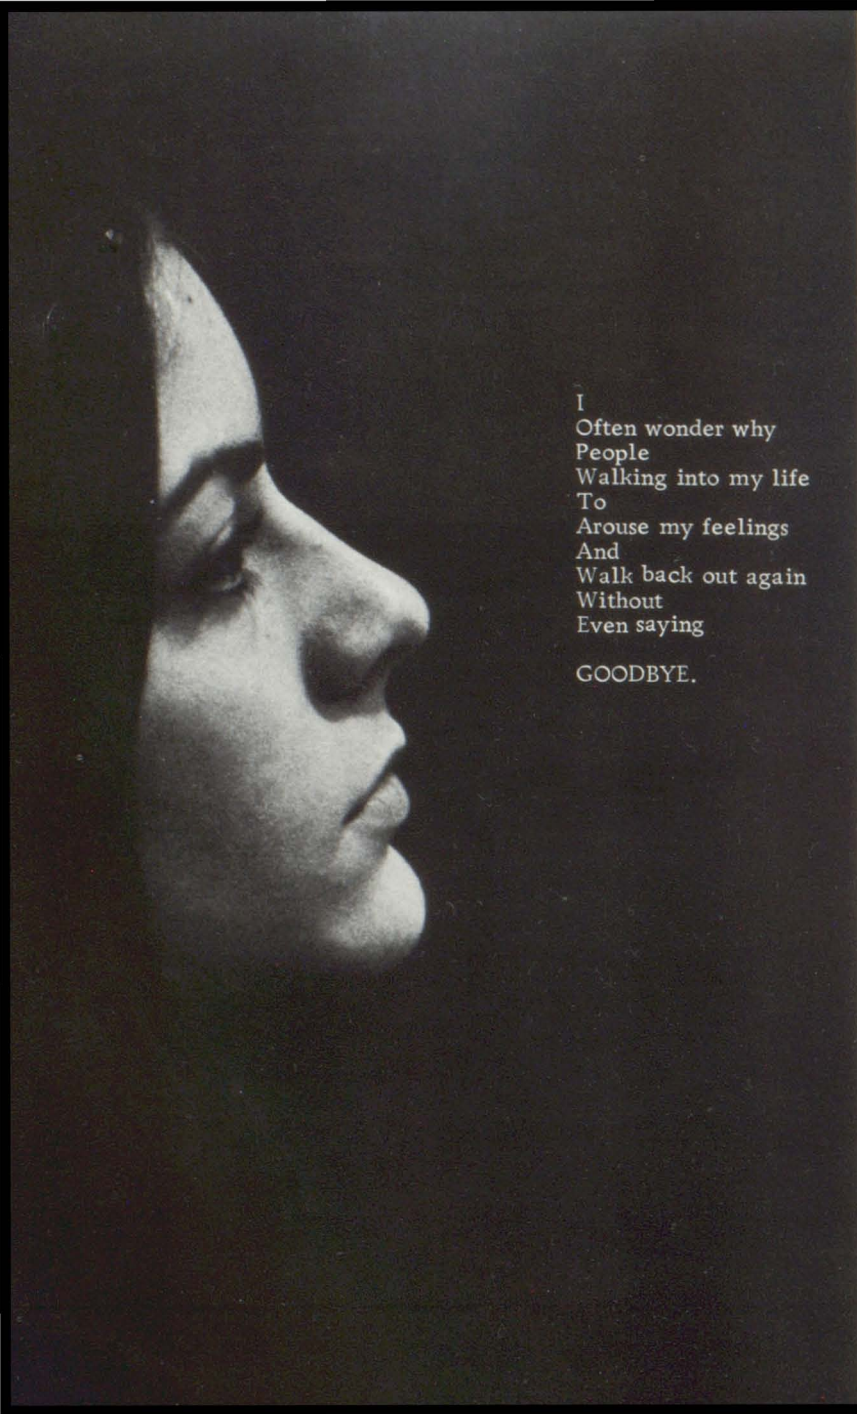

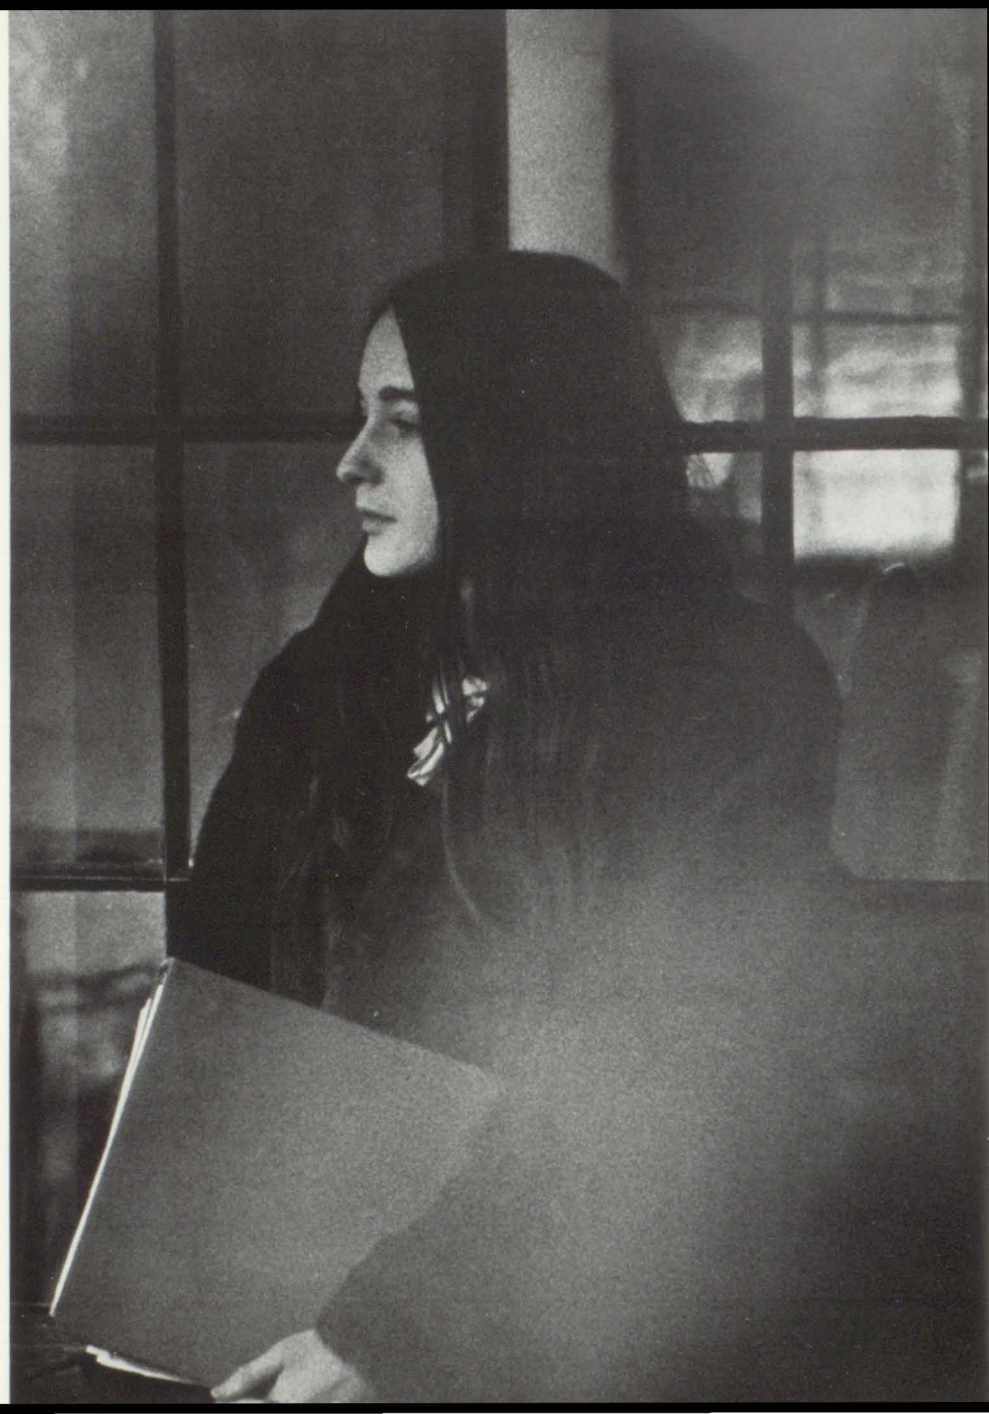

I remember all those thousands of hours that I spent in grade school watching the clock waiting for recess or lunch or to go home.
Waiting for anything but school.
My teachers could easily have ridden with Jesse James for all the time they stole from me.

I Often wonder why
People
Walking into my life
To Arouse my feelings
And
Walk back out again
Without Even saying

GOODBYE.

Life is given to you like a golden goblet from God.
It is filled with sweet Red Wine
that is really God's blood, not your own.
Some have let theirs go sour, some have gulped
it down in madness and rage.
Ah, but others have learned to sip it sweetly and let it glide, like a rare bird in victorious flight, down their throats and let it
mellow in their minds.
And it comes to them.
What life is.

- You are a child of the universe.
you must face up to reality
you should be yourself,
try to be happy, although you may find
the world is not up to its good standards, although you may find misjudgement
in some of the world's problems.

The world needs you,
and if you are yourself and help
others in time of need,
then they too will help others.

Remember, the world is always beautiful, even though there are matters of which are not perfect.

But if we all try to help and understand,
Then the world will be beautiful to everyone.

I quit.
I resign.
take my life
and cast it
from your hands.
take my soul
and hide it.
take my thoughts
and scatter them
in the sky
from a B-52
like bombs
because I give up.
take my mind
from your files
and burn it
with the village
and bury the ashes
with your buildings
of black.
take my freedom
and shut it in cages.
take my feelings
and trample them
in moon dust
beneath Aldrin's feet.
take my love
and spread it
in the sky
over beautiful L. A.
take my body
and burn it as
as rocket fuel
because I'm tired
of fighting
and it's getting kind of lonely
having a soul.
so take it.
take my soul
take my mind
take my thoughts
take my life.
you have won.
I give up.
I resign.
I quit.

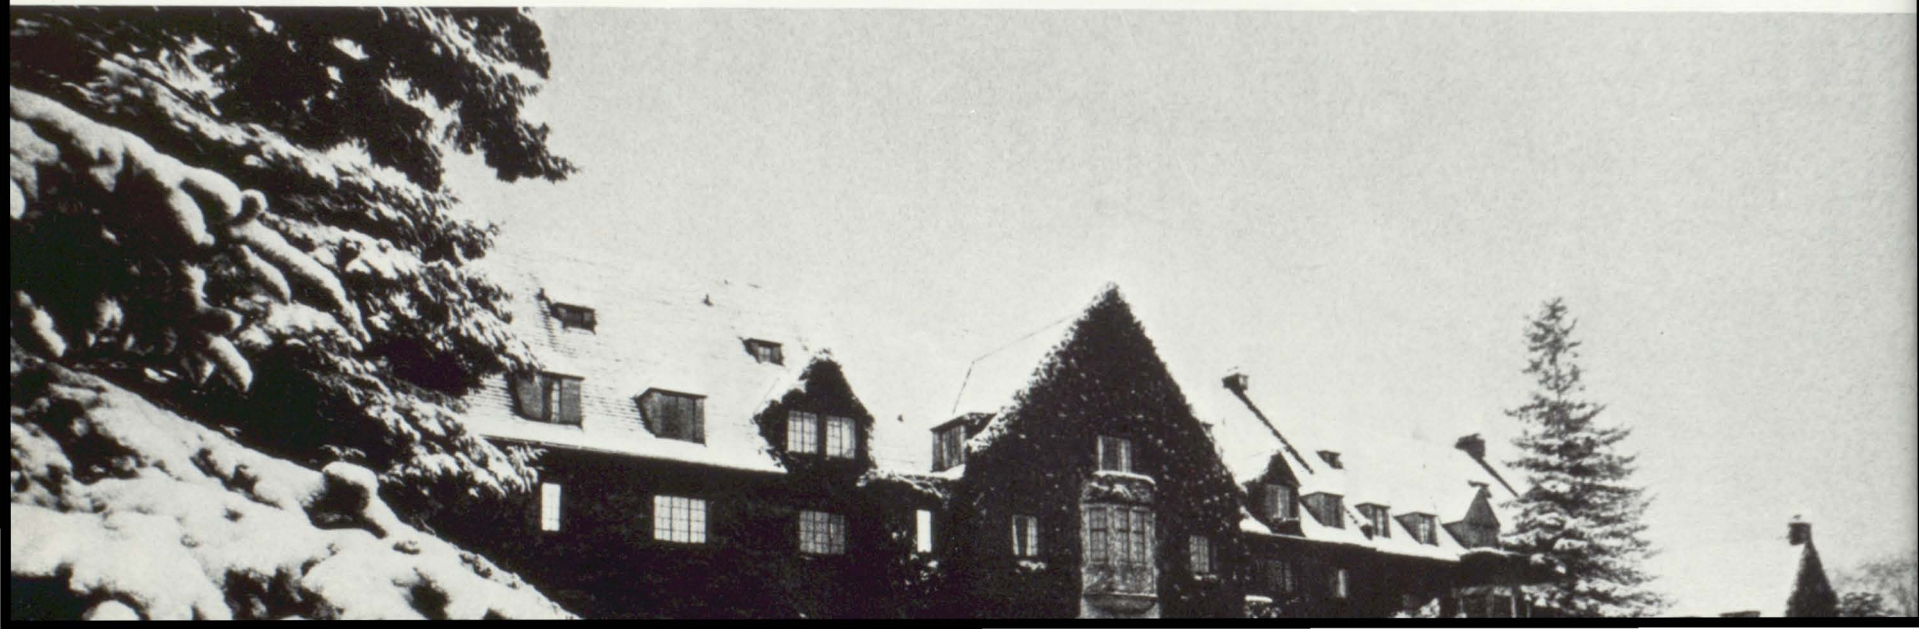

Is not the sky the Father and the earth a Mother and are not all living things with feet or wings or roots their children?

The world is yours
take it in your hands.
Care for it,
Build it,
Create for it, something good.
For now it is yours.
And it's future is for you to determine.

Come short, come tall.
We have more spirit than anyone at all.
If ever you are lonely,
If ever you are sad,
Come to a seventh grader,
And she will make you glad.

Come, one come all
You aren't a heavy load for us to haul!
Whenever you are burdened,
Or something else like that,
Come to a seventh grade,
And have a nice long chat.

Hear this, hear that
We will crush your problems until they are flat!
If anyone feels gloomy
Or carries a grouchy frown,
Come to a seventh grader.
